

Yarpole Parish website privacy statement.

The Yarpole website collects minimal data about visitors. No information is collected for the purposes of advertising or for further communication. We acknowledge that the lawful and correct treatment of personal data is very important to the efficient and effective running of the website.

We have carefully assessed that any personal data which we collect, record or use in any way whether it is held on computer or other media has appropriate safeguards applied to it to ensure that we comply with General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). We fully endorse and adhere to the relevant principles of Data Protection as set out in the 2018 Data Protection Act. These principles state that personal data must be:-

1. Fairly and lawfully processed
2. Processed for specified and lawful purposes and not in any other way which would be incompatible with those purposes
3. Adequate, relevant and not excessive
4. Accurate and kept up to date (reliant on updates provided by the relevant parties)
5. Not kept for longer than is necessary
6. Processed in line with the data subject's rights
7. Kept secure

However, cookies are used by the website to ensure that the site works correctly as it should. They serve no other purpose.